

COLONY SCHOOL

Bishop Hill, Illinois

Built 1860

Used for classes until 1952. The bell in the cupola was purchased by Janson, leader of Colonists, to call the Colonists to devotions and meals. Owned by the Bishop Hill Old Settlers Assn. and used as a community building.

Pub. by Bob Mendel, Photographers - Chicago, Illinois

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Post Card

5855-C

dp MADE BY
DEXTER PRESS, INC.
WEST NYACK, NEW YORK